

BURLINGTON HERITAGE RESOURCE INVENTORY 1997

413 Brant Street

Plan 92 Blk I Pt Lt 1

1910

B

Chinese Laundry; Berry Residence; Joe Fink Barbershop

HISTORY:

In 1835 this property passed from Andrew Gage to James Gage; in 1855 to John Hogarth; in 1862 from his estate to William Hodge; in 1865 from his estate to Peter McCulloch; in 1872 to Absalom Bell Cline (compare 401 Brant Street); in 1904 to Oliver Draper; in 1906 to William Kerns.

1916 Sewerage Works Plan: Wah Lee Laundry, owned by W. C. Kerns.

1910 GOAD Map: (drawn in) : Furniture. 1924 GOAD Map: 52 Brant: Chinese Laundry

In 1913 the property was sold to Elizabeth Berry, Widow (of Henry Berry, tailor).

The 1897 Voters List includes Henry Berry, tailor, at lot 4, Brant St.

1919 Voters List: Mrs H. Berry, Widow, Miss Lena Berry, Spinster, and Gordon Berry, Tailor, pt lot 1, Brant .

According to Machan, From Pathway to Skyway Revisited, pp. 262, 263, Gordon Berry served for many years on the Board of the Burlington Library. "In 1896, Henry Berry's small library in a house on lower Brant St. also served the literary needs of the village."

1917, 1918, 1922 Telephone Directories: Miss L. Berry, Brant.

In 1919 to Sing Jack Soo; in 1921 to Moritz Muller ... in 1980 from Richard Harmsworth to Walter (Joe) Fink, the present owner.

BURLINGTON HERITAGE RESOURCE INVENTORY 1997

413 Brant Street

Plan 92 Blk I Pt Lt 1

1910

B

Chinese Laundry; Berry Residence; Joe Fink Barbershop

