901 Let's not use any crosswalk for this. I believe we should respect all people in all their diversity. And we should recognize and celebrate that diversity. But it is very unclear to me why we celebrate sexual diversity at our crosswalks.	Anonymous User	20 May 2021, 05:04 PM

934	This is ridiculous. Are we going to have special cross walks for vegans or Black Lives matter. We are in a pandemic and our economy is closed. Maybe we need to focus on all not "special groups". Food banks and vaccine seem more appropriate subjects.	Anonymous User	21 May 2021, 04:35 PM

1	Thank you for doing this! So important to support our youth and community members, and send a message of inclusion. I hope the city will plan to install many more, at least 1 per year!	Anonymous User	07 May 2021, 12:23 PM
2	Please consider design options for future including Trans flag coloured crosswalks	Anonymous User	07 May 2021, 12:29 PM
3	I love this and hope to see more of it! I'd enjoy seeing them outside of the downtown core as we don't all go down there.	Anonymous User	07 May 2021, 12:31 PM
4	No	Anonymous User	07 May 2021, 12:32 PM
5	Outside of Halton Catholic District School Board would be perfect, even if it's the only one in the city :)	Anonymous User	07 May 2021, 12:36 PM
6	Can you not spend our money on this? Like please? People are drowning in debt and still have to pay their taxes to the city each year. This is extra curricular spending- now is not the time. Give us a penny off our taxes. Thanks	Anonymous User	07 May 2021, 12:38 PM
7	Following the HCDSB decision to not fly the pride flag during June, which is on the base level is discrimination, i feel like putting a rainbow crosswalk right near them would be a nice show of irony 😊	Anonymous User	07 May 2021, 12:40 PM
8	PLEASE have them outside of the HCDSB office!	Anonymous User	07 May 2021, 12:40 PM

55	I think we should just put rainbow crossing me at all of these locations!  	Anonymous User	07 May 2021, 01:24 PM
56	My son attends Corpus Christi High school and he told my husband and I about a situation that happened during his Religion class. They were discussing how the Halton Catholic Board will not allow the flag to be hung during Pride month. My son said there are some students that really felt that the flag would help them feel more included. These students really need support and to feel inclusive. We think this is fantastic that you are doing this! Great job! The more of these you can do, the better it will be for everyone to feel more accepted. Thank you!	Anonymous User	07 May 2021, 01:25 PM
57	I would like to see one north of the QEW as there is already one south of the QEW. Upper middle or Dundas has a lot of visibility which is good.	Anonymous User	07 May 2021, 01:27 PM

65	I think it would be great if we could have rainbow crosswalks at our near all catholic schools to ensure the students there know the city as a whole supports them and hopefully the hcdsb learns to be inclusive as well.	Anonymous User	07 May 2021, 01:37 PM
66	Thank you for being inclusive and bringing joy to the community. It is critical for the well being of our children that they feel supported and free to be their authentic selves. Hopefully	Anonymous User	07 May 2021, 01:37 PM
67	seeing these crosswalks every day on their way to/from school especially Catholic schools (which my kids attend) will be one way to show they can be who they are.	Anonymous User	07 May 2021, 01:39 PM

70	I would really like to see the entire intersection of Fairview and Drury in rainbows.	Anonymous User	07 May 2021, 01:42 PM
71	Would love to have one in Aldershot to brighten hearts and plains road!	Anonymous User	07 May 2021, 01:43 PM
72	Thanks for this important initiative.	Anonymous User	07 May 2021, 01:43 PM
73	100% it needs to be in front of the HCDSB offices. Love this idea. Way to Burlington.	Anonymous User	07 May 2021, 01:45 PM
74	I'd also suggest putting them near Catholic schools given the animosity towards flying the pride flag. A rainbow crossing can give students in those schools a feeling that they are included and that the city cares about them.	Anonymous User	07 May 2021, 01:47 PM
75	Love this idea, the more rainbows the better :)	Anonymous User	07 May 2021, 01:52 PM
76	My top choice would be the location by hcdsb	Anonymous User	07 May 2021, 01:55 PM
77	It would be nice to add this to North Burlington since South Burlington already has one.	Anonymous User	07 May 2021, 01:56 PM
78	Please place them near the Catholic Secondary schools since they voted to not fly the flag. Show city support for the students.	Anonymous User	07 May 2021, 01:58 PM

79	Locate near high schools (especially Catholic). ALL 14-18 year old need to see that they have the community's support- especially those that are trying to figure out who they are.	Anonymous User	07 May 2021, 02:01 PM
80	This is so exciting! Instead of Upper Middle and Quinte perhaps put it at the actual crosswalk from the Orchard Woodlot path across from	Anonymous User	07 May 2021, 02:02 PM
81	the school. This is where the majority of kids all cross and it would mean so much to so many!! Especially after the recent refusal of the HCDSB to fly the Pride flag.	Anonymous User	07 May 2021, 02:04 PM
82	One needs to go right beside Halton Catholic board office to show all Catholic students that they are accepted here in Burlington!	Anonymous User	07 May 2021, 02:04 PM

87	Love that the COB is doing this! I think in front of the Halton Catholic District School Board is	Anonymous User	07 May 2021, 02:15 PM

95	Thank you for supporting the LGBTQ2+ community	Anonymous User	07 May 2021, 02:32 PM
96	Love that a second rainbow crosswalk is going on! Equity and representation matter!	Anonymous User	07 May 2021, 02:33 PM
97	Brant and Upper Middle would be an amazing intersection to do all four crosswalks!	Anonymous User	07 May 2021, 02:34 PM
98	9 out of 10 cars fail to come to a complete stop at the intersection at Woodward and Tecumseh. If I estimate again, I would say at least 2 of the 9 fail to slow down. This is a super dangerous crosswalk directly adjacent to an elementary school. Perhaps placing a Rainbow walk here would help.	Anonymous User	07 May 2021, 02:36 PM
99	My top choice by far is near the Halton Catholic District School Board. Our LGBTQ+ community deserves this win.	Anonymous User	07 May 2021, 02:36 PM
100	Please locate it near the HCDSB office.	Anonymous User	07 May 2021, 02:38 PM

104	Let's make Burlington a city of rainbows!	Anonymous User	07 May 2021, 02:50 PM
105	If you need someone to lead Skyway Bridge funding to paint rainbow since it is already rainbow shape find me on social media REDACTED I will start a campaign.	Anonymous User	07 May 2021, 02:50 PM
106	This is a fantastic initiative. Thank you!	Anonymous User	07 May 2021, 02:51 PM
107	I'm Jewish and I don't go around plastering the Star of David everywhere because I "feel" oppressed. This is absolutely ridiculous. I already know that regardless of my identity, be that religious or sexual, I am welcome. Again, it's a waste to be doing this at all and putting it in front of catholic schools or their board makes it seem like you're a spiteful child. Is that really the reputation you want as a mayor?	Anonymous User	07 May 2021, 02:52 PM
108	Thank you so much for doing this.	Anonymous User	07 May 2021, 02:57 PM
109	I would love to see one in my aldershot neighborhood	Anonymous User	07 May 2021, 02:58 PM

110	New Street and Teen Tour Band why would be the perfect place for it	Anonymous User	07 May 2021, 02:58 PM
111	It would be nice to have one in north Burlington since the first one is in the south end of the city	Anonymous User	07 May 2021, 02:59 PM
112	As someone who used to live on th north side of the "green bridge" at the top of Drury, if Fairview/Drury somehow doesn't win this year, I absolutely think it should be considered again in the future.	Anonymous User	07 May 2021, 03:00 PM
113	I don't live in Burlington anymore but I grew up there my whole life, put as many as you can all over the city!	Anonymous User	07 May 2021, 03:00 PM
114	100000% halton catholic district school board. (And suspect we could crowd source rhe funds)	Anonymous User	07 May 2021, 03:01 PM
115	Thank you for doing this. We definitely need one at Fairview and Drury road.	Anonymous User	07 May 2021, 03:02 PM
116	I would like to suggest having a crosswalk with the flag that represents the transgender community 🏳️‍🌈	Anonymous User	07 May 2021, 03:02 PM
117	I think close to the school board is the best decision - especially given everything that's transpired with the board choosing not to fly the flag in pride month. Would be a great way to show support for LGBTQ+ youth and staff who are in the Catholic board. Thanks !	Anonymous User	07 May 2021, 03:09 PM
118	Choose Fairview and Drury Lane! Across from the asshole catholic school that refused to fly a rainbow flag! :-)	Anonymous User	07 May 2021, 03:10 PM
119	Quit the virtue signalling crap. And do your jobs. We are paying huge taxes and and tonnes of Burlingtonians are unemployed, businesses destroyed and that should be your priority instead of this. And quit provoking Catholics. We are the largest % of Burligtonians...and we get the Mayor isn't Catholic and her anti Catholic bigotry is well noted over and over but seriously, stop the anti Catholic bullying.	Anonymous User	07 May 2021, 03:11 PM

120	I don't view targeting these at catholic institutions locations as passive aggressive. They need to know that they are increasingly isolated and irrelevant in a modern Canadian communities when they take dated, outrageous and discriminatory stands on settled social debates. And, the crosswalks are beautiful. So colourful, they're just a really nice change. Put them everywhere.	Anonymous User	07 May 2021, 03:11 PM
121	While the downtown makes sense for a lot of things because it is the central meeting place, the suburban and neighbourhood areas are important as well to show support throughout the entire city, and to spend money on nice things outside the core.	Anonymous User	07 May 2021, 03:12 PM
122	Just another reason why I love Burlington so much.	Anonymous User	07 May 2021, 03:13 PM
123	Thank you for doing this survey!!!	Anonymous User	07 May 2021, 03:13 PM
124	I'd like to just emphasize that this should definitely be located as near to the HCDSB as possible. Their decision to deny flying the rainbow flag during Pride month is so close-minded and detrimental to countless LGBTQIA+ youth.	Anonymous User	07 May 2021, 03:15 PM
125	This is huge statement for Burlington to make, so proud of Burlington to stand up for all people! Let's keep Burlington a friendly town where everyone is Equal!	Anonymous User	07 May 2021, 03:16 PM
126	Please put it as close to the HCDSB board office as possible.	Anonymous User	07 May 2021, 03:19 PM
127	Bright prominent crosswalks (not always rainbows) should be painted for all high risk crossings for children near schools and parks.	Anonymous User	07 May 2021, 03:20 PM
128	#1 choice is Fairview and Drury Lane	Anonymous User	07 May 2021, 03:22 PM
129	Why are we restricting to only one of the above choices. In all seriousness, I'd support all of the above becoming rainbow crosswalks.	Anonymous User	07 May 2021, 03:26 PM
130	Though Fairview and Drury is easily the best choice. High visibility location	Anonymous User	07 May 2021, 03:27 PM

131	Maybe putting it near the HCDSB office would inspire them to change their minds about flying the flag in future. Shocked and disappointed by the HCDSB not flying pride	Anonymous User	07 May 2021, 03:27 PM
132	flags! Shame on them. Let's show support and inclusivity for all our students! Honestly, support lgbtq+ students in the catholic board and	Anonymous User	07 May 2021, 03:28 PM
133	paint that flag proudly at Fairview and Drury - anywhere else would be a disservice	Anonymous User	07 May 2021, 03:32 PM
134	In light of the hcdsb not flying their pride flags for pride month, it could be extremely beneficial to queer and questioning youth to place a crosswalk in front of or near Corpus Cristi. This will help show that while their school board does not have their back, the City will provide support if they are ever in need and accepts them as they are.	Anonymous User	07 May 2021, 03:32 PM
135	Lots of traffic by the mall I would prefer our Crossways not be used to push political agendas. Individuals can still remain kind and accepting to	Anonymous User	07 May 2021, 03:35 PM

137	I think it would be such a super spot close to the HS! I believe having a rainbow crosswalk by each school in Burlington would help the students feel accepted and acknowledged as welcome in the community. I also would	Anonymous User	07 May 2021, 03:36 PM
138	like to see one at Guelph line and Palmer simply because it's right by my home and I know my kids would love it and that it would drive the homophobic neighbor who tells me all the time that I'm going to hell absolutely crazy.	Anonymous User	07 May 2021, 03:37 PM

244	If it could be a Progress Pride design, that would be nice. Since there's one in the south end already, it would be nice to have one in the north end. Areas that get a lot of foot traffic are ideal. I live near Dundas/Tim Dobbie, but even if I	Anonymous User	07 May 2021, 06:13 PM

246	Given the HDCSB decision not to be all inclusive despite staff, student and parents request to support marginalized students I strongly believe the best location at this time is Fairview Street and Dury Lane.	Anonymous User	07 May 2021, 06:14 PM
247	As a Roman Catholic I'm appalled at the decision to not raise the pride flag, it's reassuring to see the city step up and do these rainbow sidewalks. As a longtime resident thank you for keep our community inclusive to everyone.	Anonymous User	07 May 2021, 06:18 PM

252	I think that after the Halton Catholic District School Board's decision to not support LGBTQ2S+ students by not flying the pride flag, painting the crosswalk near the HCDSB office would be an amazing reminder that bigotry, hatred and homophobia are not tolerated in Burlington! It would mean so much to all the past and current HCDSB students and staff who are apart of the LGBTQ2S+ community. PLEASE put a rainbow crosswalk at Fairview Street and Drury Lane. 318	The crosswalk should be located at a place that carries a feel of community. My first pick is at Central Library. The location often hosts community events and is frequented by members from all over the city. It is used for community events and has a true feel of what Burlington is all about. My hesitation with placing the crosswalk near a Catholic school (or any school at all) is that it becomes a political symbol which tends to divide the community rather than bring it together. With the recent news of the Catholic School Board not flying the Pride flag at their schools (which they have the right to do based on their religious beliefs), I fear that the responses you will get will come out of spite rather than a true understanding of what the Rainbow Crosswalk means. I encourage you to consider the meaning of inclusion in the community and how best to bring it all together before making your final decision. Thank you for your time.	Anonymous User	07 May 2021, 08:14 PM

322	I LOVE LOVE LOVE LOVE LOVE the rainbow crosswalks. Beautiful and meaningful.	Anonymous User	07 May 2021, 08:22 PM

323	These rainbow crosswalks are a terrible and idea. They create opportunities for a simple tire mark to be scene as a form of hate. This is a waste of tax payer money and the rainbow flag has become a political symbol. As a tax paying citizen, I hate to see pointless efforts to morally grandstand on useless initiatives like this. I have nothing but respect for people in the 2SLGBTQIA+ community, however, this is simply patronizing to that community and pushing a political agenda. This does not promote inclusion, but rather "others" those represented by the symbol and further divides the political sides that often interpret this symbol in different ways. Please stop with this nonsense before we need a dozen more crosswalks to further divide us into our little tribes.	Anonymous User	07 May 2021, 08:23 PM

I don't agree with putting the crosswalk near The Catholic Board of education.

I'm not Catholic but I followed the story of the HCDSB not raising the pride flag. It was disappointing and I don't believe in public funds supporting a religious school system so I also don't agree with using public dollars to put a rainbow crosswalk to send a political statement. There's something a bit passive aggressive about it and I think the rainbow crosswalk should be vibrant and positive in more ways than one.

It's too hard to pick one highschool. All of them or none of them.

377 I chose Walker's line, preferably the crosswalk as the hydro path is frequented by so many people of multi generations. I like a rainbow crosswalk being close to the police station as a sign that those who uphold the law have 'got your back'. I also love that our police officers would be driving over it everyday as they start or end their shift. (Unintentional bonus, it also helps draw attention to a busy crosswalk on a busy street). A lot of students from [REDACTED] use the hydro path to get home to Headon Forest.

I chose the bus station and added a future spot as the GO station. A rainbow crosswalk located where people visit our great city is the best welcome mat!

378 Thank you for all you're doing to make inclusiveness visible. I just really hope you put the rainbow crosswalk in front of Halton Catholic School Board because they really need the message.

430	Are they a distraction to drivers? I really really love the idea of them and they do look great but I wonder if putting one at a busy intersection where people drive fast may not be the safest? I love the idea of putting them places where people can engage in conversation about it that may have more foot traffic (bus hub, schools, library, mall). Thanks!	Anonymous User	08 May 2021, 07:25 AM

431	I think it's north Burlington's turn. I live south Burl but it would be nice to brighten up the north next then consider coming back south :)	Anonymous User	08 May 2021, 07:35 AM

433	I was so embarrassed by the Trustees of the Halton Catholic District school Board not wanting to fly the pride flag, I would love to see the rainbow crosswalk by their board office.	Anonymous User	08 May 2021, 07:38 AM
434	I don't understand how doing rainbow crosswalks and/or flying a rainbow flag help the gay community feel more accepted. They are people like us of any colour, of any sexual orientation, of any race etc..... I personally feel that doing stuff like this or the over exaggerated reaction to names of bands, black peoples faces on certain products being removed etc is separating the different beliefs and the different cultures creating a fury and bringing back prejudices more than ever, at a time especially during a pandemic, when people should be learning WE are ALL people, ONE community, ONE world. And with ALL OUR differences in EVERY aspect of life, we live on one earth and should be accepting and loving of each other, no matter what your identity may be. My own niece whom I love for her, has transgendered. She feels very "stereotyped" when all she wants to do is love her life as a new woman and fit in with the community. Not stand out as "one of them". No gender, no race, etc should stand out over the other! WE are ALL equal standing under a CANADIAN flag of equality!	Anonymous User	08 May 2021, 07:39 AM
435	This is such a beautiful project/initiative. Thank you for considering the public's input. I love Burlington!!	Anonymous User	08 May 2021, 07:42 AM

437	It's very important that the sidewalk is painted near/outside of the Catholic school board to show support for LGBT2+ students. The HCDSB trustees are a joke. Let's do what they wouldn't.	Anonymous User	08 May 2021, 07:48 AM

444	I truly feel this should be placed at the halton catholic district school board. Even the Toronto school board has agreed to fly the flag. These Burlington schools are ending up on the wrong side of history.	Anonymous User	08 May 2021, 08:13 AM

453	Great idea. Keep them coming.	Anonymous User	08 May 2021, 08:47 AM

454	My top preference is HCDSB. Having a rainbow crosswalk at this location will be a huge leap in cultural change and a progressive move for how the City of Burlington shows solidarity with the 2SLGBTQIA+ community.	Anonymous User	08 May 2021, 08:50 AM

462	Thank you for pushing this inclusive initiative!	Anonymous User	08 May 2021, 09:17 AM
463	It has to be by the Catholic School Board office. Has to be. My absolute TOP choice is New Street and Appleby Line. We live in this area, use this crosswalk all the time, and my daughter is gay. She works in the area and would get to see this crosswalk every day. She loves when we go past the one in downtown Burlington, but we don't really have a	Anonymous User	08 May 2021, 09:21 AM
464	reason to go there very often! My 2nd choice would be near Nelson high school. Kids in high school need to feel accepted, and with Robert Bateman closing, suddenly there are LOTS of students who are new to Nelson, trying to find friends and fit in ONLINE! Give everyone something to feel joyous about.	Anonymous User	08 May 2021, 09:21 AM
465	I love the cross walk down town. We definitely need more. Maybe north and south of the HCDSB. Thanks for listening :)	Anonymous User	08 May 2021, 09:21 AM

467	Thank you for doing this. Acceptance is a beautiful thing!	Anonymous User	08 May 2021, 09:23 AM

468	I am outraged by the Halton District Catholic Board's decision to not support this movement. I can't understand why they receive public funding when they do not represent our children today.	Anonymous User	08 May 2021, 09:25 AM
469	I love seeing these around and think it is esthetically pleasing and helpful to make LGBTQ2+ feel safe, welcome and included	Anonymous User	08 May 2021, 09:26 AM

473	Definitely in front of HCDSB!!	Anonymous User	08 May 2021, 09:28 AM
474	Should also consider crosswalks around the hospital	Anonymous User	08 May 2021, 09:32 AM
475	Stop wasting tax payers money on stupid self serving projects. We have many homeless people in Burlington that can use the money	Anonymous User	08 May 2021, 09:35 AM
476	I would love this to happen in front of the HCDSB. My children attend a Catholic school and it's so embarrassing as a Catholic woman that this is still something we need to fight for in 2021	Anonymous User	08 May 2021, 09:38 AM
477	This cross walk should be outside every Catholic school.	Anonymous User	08 May 2021, 09:40 AM
478	I feel small steps like this are tremendously important in order to make the LGBTQ+ members of our community feel welcomed. These actions should be taken in as many locations as possible. There's no downside.	Anonymous User	08 May 2021, 09:41 AM

487	They should definitely walk in front of Skyway Diner.	Anonymous User	08 May 2021, 10:04 AM
488	Given the history I would avoid the Catholic schools unless they request them. It's counter productive to antagonize a community. The have a right to their beliefs, even if it doesn't include a place for 2SLGBTQIA+ like me.	Anonymous User	08 May 2021, 10:04 AM
489	more rainbows please	Anonymous User	08 May 2021, 10:26 AM
490	I think this is a fantastic idea and applaud the city for this initiative! a rainbow walkway in front of the Catholic district school board's head office would speak volumes.	Anonymous User	08 May 2021, 10:27 AM

501	Six installations a year is doable.	Anonymous User	08 May 2021, 10:59 AM

502	If I could rank the options, I would rank outside of HCDSB first.	Anonymous User	08 May 2021, 11:01 AM
503	Put the crosswalks where a lot of people walk Aldershot needs some pick me up colour! I live near appleby/new (and I'd love to tell my kids I helped picked that location) but I chose it because there are always a lot of people walking across. I think putting it at locations with mostly cars won't have the same impact.	Anonymous User	08 May 2021, 11:11 AM
504	Drivers/commuters along Dundas won't notice it. So I chose based on where I see a lot of walkers, and also chose near catholic schools (those kids need to know even if their board doesn't support them, that many others do).	Anonymous User	08 May 2021, 11:13 AM
505	My first choice would be Fairview and Drury	Anonymous User	08 May 2021, 11:14 AM
506	The one at the lake looks great, excited to see more in the city.	Anonymous User	08 May 2021, 11:15 AM
507	Love this so much!!	Anonymous User	08 May 2021, 11:21 AM
508	We feel it is important that these crosswalks be installed in and around areas with schools, especially catholic schools.	Anonymous User	08 May 2021, 11:23 AM
509	Thank you for spreading inclusion. This makes me proud to live in Burlington!	Anonymous User	08 May 2021, 11:25 AM
510	Great idea!!	Anonymous User	08 May 2021, 11:27 AM
511	Love this initiative. Love is love. I imagine the rainbow crosswalks can add up quickly. Would love to see other rainbow initiatives that could be spread more widely and quickly throughout the region. More visibility to make others who are not on board realize that these are reflecting important rights and acceptance that many residents of Burlington go without. 513	Really hope it happens in front of the HCDSB!	Anonymous User	08 May 2021, 11:44 AM
514	Why won't the HCDSB fly a rainbow flag? Let's show support for the Catholic LGBTQIA community by putting a rainbow crossing near the Catholic schools or Catholic Board building.	Anonymous User	08 May 2021, 11:46 AM

515	Only place this year is by the Catholic Board office given their terrible stance on flying the rainbow flag! I think putting a rainbow crosswalk is an excellent way of showing support. The placement on Fairview and Dury is	Anonymous User	08 May 2021, 11:49 AM
516	perfect because it is not too close to the one on lakeshore but will still get to be appreciated due to the traffic on both streets!	Anonymous User	08 May 2021, 11:49 AM

520	The choice for the city should be near the HCDSB to influence there acceptance towards the LGBTQ+ community.	Anonymous User	08 May 2021, 12:07 PM
521	Pride is a sin. Hate the sin, pray for the sinner. Tax money better spent elsewhere. The one on Lakeshore is enough.	Anonymous User	08 May 2021, 12:08 PM

This park is greatly used and what a way to show community spirit for all who live here. I would like to see cultural celebration crosswalks. 	With all respect and love for our community. This initiative has only created more division in Burlington. I love everyone in my community, but unfortunately, I have heard some people advocating for this to do exactly what this is not supposed to generate: Division and bullying for those that disagree. Since when disagreement became “old school” thinking or an attack? The key is to learn to disagree well, with grace and respect of all opinions. Placing more symbols to force others to agree will not solve the issues in our society. Placing a symbol in front of any Halton Catholic school site seems to promote the same
573	bullying you are trying to eliminate. My faith values, principles, and decisions to defend my faith need to be respected. Placing a symbol to please those who want to challenge the thoughts of those who disagree will only create more division, resentment and fewer opportunities to sit down and talk, to dialogue and to allow love to flow organically in our beautiful city.	Anonymous User	08 May 2021, 07:58 PM
	No one wins or loses with this; in the end, we all lose. I hope and pray that our Mayor will consider the community as a whole to nurture growth and encourage conversations that will go beyond politics and will embrace the beauty of the community.

579	I think it should be in a place like in front of the Halton Catholic Board office. They've made the despicable decision to not fly the pride flag. People in the LGBTQ+ community exist, they are loved and seen and for the Catholic board to make this decision is disgusting. This will be a great reminder to those in charge of the Catholic board that they have students who deserve to be seen, respected and acknowledged and hopefully to do better for their students moving forward. Let them SEE and be REMINDED of how hurtful and NOT INCLUSIVE their decision was.	Anonymous User	09 May 2021, 03:14 PM
611	Recently, the Halton District Catholic School Board voted against flying the pride flag during Pride Month. 625	I'd really love to see the rainbow crosswalk in North Burlington! My favourite location would be Dundas St. and Tim Dobbie St. It's close to a library, pool, skatepark and school and really is a north Burlington hub. It would be great for families and other communities members to see this when out for walks, at sports practices, etc. I noticed that some of the locations listed above are within walking distance of the original crosswalk in downtown Burlington (John St., Pearl St., and Baldwin). I feel that since south Burlington already has a rainbow crosswalk that the next one should be in north Burlington. I fear placing a rainbow sidewalk near a Catholic school or school board will be perceived as a targeted political move/attack and would lead to community backlash. As a member of the LGBTQ+ community (and former Catholic school student) it has been difficult to overhear other Burlington residents express their distaste for my community and I believe a more neutral location would help avoid feeling the fire of hate.	Anonymous User	10 May 2021, 12:21 AM

635	It needs to be somewhere with a lot of foot traffic so it can trend on social media. So somewhere downtown is best.	Anonymous User	10 May 2021, 01:12 PM
636	I think a rainbow crosswalk outside of aHCDSB owned building would be a great idea to show Burlington still stands with these people even though the school board chose to not fly the flag.	Anonymous User	10 May 2021, 01:40 PM

640	Please be considerate of other people who support LGBT children but think that the pride flag is the best way to promote kindness and inclusion inside our schools. Please be considerable of other people too, the ones who cannot speak out in social media because we get bullied and kicked out of FB groups when we do. This issue has become such a divisive force among parents. Only hate and more bullying resulted from all of this.	Anonymous User	10 May 2021, 07:17 PM

648	We need to show that we stand for all students in our community including the students who attend catholic schools, especially when their school board won't support them.	Anonymous User	11 May 2021, 03:29 PM
649	They do not want to fly the flag for the month so let's bring the flag to them...permanently	Anonymous User	11 May 2021, 05:21 PM
650	I believe the 1st choice should be adjacent to the Halton Catholic District School Board. Shame on the board for voting against flying the Pride flag. Begs the question yet again as to why we fund the separate school boards at all.	Anonymous User	11 May 2021, 06:34 PM
651	I'd love and I'm excited to see this next Rainbow Crosswalk if ever this will happen this year.	Anonymous User	11 May 2021, 07:40 PM
652	I would suggest two important factors in deciding: 1. the locations be scattered around the whole city so the concept is represented in all areas (north, south, east west) and 2. the intersections with the highest level of pedestrian traffic be the ones where they are installed. 655	If you put 2SLGBTQIA+ crosswalks in random places in a city then you are also compelled to place non-2SLGBTQIA+ crosswalks there as well. Perhaps white or blue. One wouldn't want to exclude fine folks who are not 2SLGBTQIA+ . Doing so may compel a lot of 2SLGBTQIA+ taxpayers to move to places more friendly and let Burlington become a 2SLGBTQIA+ haven. Do 2SLGBTQIA+ 's pay taxes?	Anonymous User	12 May 2021, 08:26 AM
656	We frequent Burlington regularly.	Anonymous User	12 May 2021, 08:55 AM

657	I think tax payer money should be spent elsewhere rather than using it to paint rainbow crosswalks. Maybe someone wants to donate money to Burlington in order to have rainbow crosswalks?	Anonymous User	12 May 2021, 09:14 AM
658	More in North Burlington.	Anonymous User	12 May 2021, 01:16 PM

661	Given recent moves by the Catholic School board moving to paint the crosswalk by those places would help show students that even though there school may not support them there city does. It could be quite powerful	Anonymous User	12 May 2021, 02:08 PM
662	It would be appropriate to put next crosswalk in North Burlington, since the first is in the south. After that, we already have one in central area, so next one could be farther east or west.	Anonymous User	12 May 2021, 02:39 PM
663	Thank you!	Anonymous User	12 May 2021, 02:40 PM

666	Love the rainbow crosswalk and look forward to seeing more of them! I picked the five crosswalks listed near schools for a reason: I think greater acceptance is going to start with the younger folk and we need to support any young folk who identify as 2SLGBTQIA+. I think we're on the way, but greater change will begin with the young and they should be encouraged to accept each other, just as they are.	Anonymous User	12 May 2021, 03:15 PM

	It would be amazing if Burlington could also consider making a transgender pride flag crosswalk. Could potentially be the same intersection as a rainbow one, opposite each other. I absolutely love that the city is doing these and being trans myself and knowing many other trans individuals who live in Burlington, it would be greatly appreciated by the community.

	Please keep the classic rainbow flag design for these upcoming pride crosswalks. Besides being a visual eyesore, the brown and black stripes are an unnecessary and controversial addition since the rainbow flag as it is is meant to encompass everyone. Black and brown are also not colours of the rainbow.
675		Anonymous User	12 May 2021, 05:12 PM

Hopefully adding a rainbow crosswalk will indicate that all persons are supported and included in our community and city.	Anonymous User	12 May 2021, 09:33 PM

If you're looking for high traffic, visibility locations, I suggested Fairview and Guelph Line.	Anonymous User	13 May 2021, 11:12 AM

703	I just selected the first location because it was required but I don't want to select any at this time actually - the money can be better spent to help people struggling with covid effects - marginalized populations , including those represented by a rainbow crosswalk would benefit better from supports /programs rather than a painted sign. At a time when so many people are struggling, taxes were recently said to increase, and then funds are used for these purposes? Please prioritize nice to have vs actual needs. 714	How about equity and diversity for religious communities? The “diversity” seems very one-sided. Do you know there are no grocery stores here with Kosher food? 0. “Diversity” isn’t diversity when it only supports one group.	Anonymous User	13 May 2021, 04:43 PM
715	I'm so glad City of doing this. It's about time!	Anonymous User	13 May 2021, 05:07 PM
716	The more visibility of these crosswalks repeated throughout the city, reinforces this imperative inclusive messaging more often.	Anonymous User	13 May 2021, 05:23 PM
717	Supportive of Burlington doing this. Thank you for doing this small thing for 2SLGBTQIA+ and all of us who live, work and play in Burlington.	Anonymous User	13 May 2021, 05:39 PM
718	Love the rainbow!	Anonymous User	13 May 2021, 05:59 PM

719	My first choice is closest to the HCDSB offices due to the deplorable choice that the school board made in electing to not fly the pride flag. If these people cannot be accepting of all of our community, they should not be accepting tax dollars to run their school board. Hopefully this survey brings light to how unaccepting this part of the Burlington community is.	Anonymous User	13 May 2021, 06:34 PM
720	I think this is important work and I think education should come along with it. I hope there is follow-through with making Burlington truly inclusive and these aren't just pretty rainbows on our roads. Thank you.	Anonymous User	13 May 2021, 06:52 PM

725	I feel it is important to place these rainbow crosswalks near every high school, especially HCDSB schools.	Anonymous User	13 May 2021, 10:55 PM
726	I don't agree with this. We can be respectful with that community but we still have to also be respectful with the majority of the people. Spending public money and using public spaces to be thoughtful with that minority group not only is disrespectful with the majority of the population but also with other minority groups. Why does that one have to be favored? Please, don't do that.	Anonymous User	13 May 2021, 11:22 PM
727	We should have many more to show our support.	Anonymous User	13 May 2021, 11:32 PM

729	Also, thank you for doing this!! We have a couple that are gay on our street that are good friends of ours. I know they have issues with the neighbour, who we believe is homophobic. It would be nice to make a statement in the neighborhood to support them.	Anonymous User	14 May 2021, 05:06 AM
730	Our top choice is Fairview and Drury Lane	Anonymous User	14 May 2021, 06:40 AM

740	I think this would be a great initiative given the HCDSB Board's recent decision to not fly the pride flag. As a mother with children in both school boards, I would be in favour of all 6 of my votes being used for this location. I also love your community engagement approach on this and will be happy ultimately with the decision the community chooses. Have a fantastic day!	Anonymous User	14 May 2021, 12:13 PM

762	Love these crosswalks!	Anonymous User	17 May 2021, 09:57 AM
763	I believe one is enough to show support. How many other items like memorials honoring veterans do we have? Most other groups or events have one item or area where they are recognized. The one rainbow area we have now across from the park is perfect and will be front an center when the music festival and rib fest returns. No additional areas needed.	Anonymous User	17 May 2021, 10:02 AM

764	People will likely be taking pictures, so I think it's best to avoid high traffic areas for this walkway, to avoid accidents or unnecessary traffic :)	Anonymous User	17 May 2021, 10:25 AM

768	As a student going to Dr. Frank J Hayden Secondary school, it makes me very happy to see that these rainbow crosswalks are being implemented into the streets of burlington. As a trans kid, it would be great to see a rainbow crosswalk near me, and im sure that other lgbtq+ youth and adults living here would be estatic to see the inclusivity happening here in Burlington.	Anonymous User	17 May 2021, 11:27 AM
769	Thank you for this. Means a lot to the LGBTQ+ community, this is why we love Burlington.	Anonymous User	17 May 2021, 11:54 AM

777	Thank you	Anonymous User	17 May 2021, 02:44 PM
778	I am ashamed to be a part of hcdsb as they are refusing to fly the flag out of respect for a singular month. I really think that having the rainbow crosswalk outside of the board building would be phenomenal.	Anonymous User	17 May 2021, 03:24 PM

779	I don't think that Burlington needs more than ONE Rainbow Crosswalk in our city. They are very costly to both install and to maintain. Our Tax dollars can certainly be used for more needed and effective projects. However, given councils decision, I think that "Fairview and Drury Lane" would be the best location for a second one, if council insists on installing a second one. (The City of Hamilton is a much larger City, and they only have one. My understanding is that the Rainbow Crosswalk in Hamilton was built with money donated to the City from city businesses, and no Tax Dollars were used for that project). 815	You should do a rainbow intersection at one of the large intersections like new and appleby, brant and Fairview, or maple and lakeshore. Doing all four walks at an intersection would have great impact.	Anonymous User	20 May 2021, 11:53 PM
816	The Catholic board isn't doing enough to be inclusive and the people voting on LGBTQ2 matters are the last people who should be voting on such matters. 834	While I don't agree with the HCDSB's recent decision on flying the rainbow flag, many people are going to see it as a political statement if a rainbow crosswalk is near their offices. I think the schools themselves are more important than the board office in this case. 	This is a great, commendable idea. Another idea can be to find suitable sidewalk areas (park setting, pedestrian section of a downtown street (The Village?) where to write in permanent fonts verses from poems of well known poets (ex. T.S. Elliot, Robert Lowell, Elizabeth Bishop, Sylvia Path, etc. etc.) for people to read, learn and reflect. Verses do not have to be strictly from English language poetry but other languages too (to be inclusive and considerate of other cultures). Thoughtful quotes from famous people will probably be appropriate too.	Anonymous User	21 May 2021, 04:38 PM

Maybe incorporate the rainbow into the city hall outdoor area. Rainbow pergola perhaps? Do something different that's harder to be ruined. The crosswalks have issues in every town they're been placed in country wide.	Anonymous User	21 May 2021, 05:19 PM

871	I think it's important that young people know many people care and support their path in life. ALL ROADS LEADING TO AND FROM BURLINGTON, whether you're traveling north, south, east or west, could show a strong and positive message of strength and support for our SLGBTQIA+ community through visible rainbow crosswalks. IDEA: Do Plains Road West at Botanical Drive this year. It covers traffic coming into Burlington from the west and southwest, and tourists or community members who flock to the RBG. Find North, South, and East locations that are entrances to the city and do them next year. It's a start and just makes sense to me to attain high visibility. Besides, starting with a neutral plan there shouldn't be much public questioning or controversy.	Anonymous User	21 May 2021, 07:27 PM
872	There are a large number of high schools on the current list. Please note from a former Principal and Trustee that I have questions for your consideration: Should a high school location be chosen, what were the reasons? Why not the other schools? Catholic or public? Why? Were high school students surveyed? Involved in this process? (Especially student Trustees). Why near the Halton catholic school board? Why not the Halton public school board? Why not both? If visibility is truly a goal, where are the highest use and visibility spots in the city?	Anonymous User	21 May 2021, 07:52 PM
873	Burlington folks should be proud of our councillors taking on Would love to see some integrated into public parks!!!!	Anonymous User	21 May 2021, 07:56 PM
874	We look forward to another rainbow crosswalk.	Anonymous User	21 May 2021, 08:20 PM

875	Love this	Anonymous User	21 May 2021, 08:42 PM
876	It is a beautiful tribute.	Anonymous User	21 May 2021, 08:43 PM
877	Rainbow crosswalks should and must be supported by our city.	Anonymous User	21 May 2021, 08:44 PM
878	None	Anonymous User	21 May 2021, 08:50 PM
879	none	Anonymous User	21 May 2021, 09:01 PM
880	I would certainly hope people do not intentionally pick the catholic school locations out of spite. Burlington prides itself on diversity. That also means freedom of choice. I have picked strategically. Thank you.	Anonymous User	21 May 2021, 09:06 PM
881	Great idea!	Anonymous User	21 May 2021, 09:09 PM
882	Would love to have this near our house!	Anonymous User	21 May 2021, 09:17 PM
883	As close to Halton Catholic School board as possible, thanks	Anonymous User	21 May 2021, 09:27 PM
884	Love these. Think they're important in tourist areas so more people see them	Anonymous User	21 May 2021, 09:36 PM
885	Great initiative. Thank you.	Anonymous User	21 May 2021, 09:38 PM
886	Bread and circuses; bright and shiny, but does not address any real problems.	Anonymous User	21 May 2021, 09:39 PM
887	Sexual preferences do not to be celebrated or advertised.	Anonymous User	21 May 2021, 09:40 PM
888	city doing anything to represent cisgender? NO to any more of this! What started as a good idea to support lesbian/gays became WOKE politically correct nonsense!	Anonymous User	21 May 2021, 10:03 PM
889	2SLGBTQIA+ (Two-Spirit, lesbian, gay, bisexual, transgender, queer, questioning, intersex and asexual) community... why not add CCP, LIB, CON, NDP, GREEN, IND, if the list gets any longer, you will run out of letters! I don't agree that crossing with political message supporting groups should be used by the City of Burlington.. Municipal	Anonymous User	21 May 2021, 10:31 PM
890	governments are supposed to be non-political. If these crossing are used to highlight special interest groups, where do you stop..	Anonymous User	21 May 2021, 11:57 PM

891	I love the rainbow crosswalks, and what they represent and well, I am a Colour Therapist so I personally like them for what they add to our beautiful diverse culture.	Anonymous User	22 May 2021, 07:09 AM
892	Do ALL crosswalks as rainbow - help promote diversity, walking and SAFER driving as many drivers could care less about cross walks (or stopping at stop signs) and they have become dangerous. Put out an add campaign with a SUV full of children running a stop sign with the caption "when did it become "cool" to not look both ways?"	Anonymous User	22 May 2021, 07:52 AM
893	Love the addition of new rainbow cross walks I think the movement risks push-back and alienation by pushing itself at the rest of society. I am politically very much left-leaning, but an Evangelical – my policy is to treat ALL people with kindness and respect, but I don't want roads to be painted for every cause. What about retired veterans, depressed people, children who are not properly cared for, mistreated spouses, etc.? The PRIDE movement is politically too much in people's faces. I have a birth defect in my back, and some people think I'm crazy because I publish	Anonymous User	22 May 2021, 07:54 AM
894	imaginative stories on Facebook, but I don't want any special flag or painted roads. Just emphasize inclusion in literature and publication – leave the roads alone. Don't FORCE me to love what PRIDE celebrates. I can be loving and respectful without encouraging behaviour which the Bible expressly does not celebrate. If I am wrong about what the Bible says, please have someone in the PRIDE movement gently and respectfully let me know where I have gone wrong. I just believe PRIDE has become the tail wagging the dog. No painted roads please!	Anonymous User	22 May 2021, 08:04 AM
895	Good move!!	Anonymous User	22 May 2021, 08:17 AM
896	I think it is a waste of time and resources spent on 1% of the population.	Anonymous User	22 May 2021, 08:33 AM

897	Would love to see greater emphasis on using paint to mark out cycling infrastructure particularly bike lanes at intersections. Many cities use paint for "bike pads". I would rather see this before using paint for rainbows.	Anonymous User	22 May 2021, 08:35 AM
898	We should set a goal of 10 crosswalks a year	Anonymous User	22 May 2021, 08:38 AM
899	Always appreciate the efforts to support inclusion. Thank you for doing this!	Anonymous User	22 May 2021, 08:39 AM
900	I think this is great and hope there is alot of support for these type of project	Anonymous User	22 May 2021, 10:09 AM
901	In light of the denial to fly the flag I strongly feel the rainbow crosswalk should be on Drury Lane! First establish the Rainbow crosswalk as a Burlington attraction and then as a Burlington tradition. After the downtown core is established, It would be a cool tradition if a Rainbow crosswalk was painted during the night of May 31st some where else in Burlington (at an undisclosed location so it is seen the first day of Pride month each year)	Anonymous User	22 May 2021, 10:10 AM
902	Burlington's Rainbow Crosswalks could also incorporate stories and/or historical notes associated with each location, through an App. "BRC did you know..."	Anonymous User	22 May 2021, 10:44 AM
	*I would not have chosen from the list above but could not submit the survey without completing the "6 top choices" my choices are in the comment section :)
903	Great initiative. Please focus on crosswalks without control as this slows down drivers and makes the city more pedestrian friendly.	Anonymous User	22 May 2021, 10:52 AM
904	Rainbow crosswalk should be located in high traffic area of both pedestrians and automobiles.. The downtown area while having high traffic also attracts people from other areas of the City... It seems that downtown core (lakeshore rd) has the most diverse traffic	Anonymous User	22 May 2021, 11:32 AM

905	Happy to see areas outside of the downtown being considered. Happy that the city is trying to find ways to make people like me feel welcome.	Anonymous User	22 May 2021, 11:58 AM
906	Please add a crosswalk at Ontario Street at the Hydro path. (Just east of Brock) There is already an accessible ramp to the street on the north side- but no crossing, or stop sign, or ramp on the south side. Many elderly, cyclists, runners and people with accessibility needs cross here in traffic and if they need a ramp on the south must stay on the street against traffic to reach Brock avenue crossing at Molinaro construction site.	Anonymous User	22 May 2021, 12:17 PM
907	Rainbows are pretty	Anonymous User	22 May 2021, 12:28 PM
908	Near high schools makes sense	Anonymous User	22 May 2021, 01:30 PM
909	This is a fantastic initiative. Thank you for pursuing it. Kudos to the Mayor and Councillors.	Anonymous User	22 May 2021, 01:53 PM
910	must get opinion of the people of the city before choosing location	Anonymous User	22 May 2021, 03:20 PM
911	We do not need sexualized crosswalks in Burlington. I am totally against this!	Anonymous User	22 May 2021, 03:23 PM
912	It's very distracting to see on the roads when driving. How about a flag instead next time.	Anonymous User	22 May 2021, 04:29 PM
913	I did not really feel comfortable making suggestions as to location. Where does the LGBTQ community wasn't the crosswalk? My top choice would be wherever they want it located.	Anonymous User	22 May 2021, 05:18 PM
914	I love the rainbow crossing. I am glad the City is considering more.	Anonymous User	22 May 2021, 05:24 PM
915	As private citizens, we would love to sponsor more of this initiative (perhaps for our street). I'd love to see this as an option!	Anonymous User	22 May 2021, 05:58 PM
916	Wouldn't 3 be a better number than 6?	Anonymous User	22 May 2021, 07:00 PM
917	My number 1 choice is Drury and Fairview	Anonymous User	22 May 2021, 07:19 PM
918	Thank you for showing that Burlington as an ally.	Anonymous User	22 May 2021, 07:32 PM

919	I am extremely disappointed in the Halton Catholic school boards decision not to have a pride flag flown on catholic school locations. Its another reason I think public school boards and catholic should merge. I went to a catholic school and other than religion class I noticed no other difference. I hope these crosswalks change the public's perception of 2SLGBTQIA+. They should be treated as everyone else.	Anonymous User	22 May 2021, 08:54 PM
920	I love the crosswalk. Great idea	Anonymous User	23 May 2021, 07:29 AM
921	I hope that the location will be at a busy intersection but preferably one in a place that doesn't have residences close enough to have a view of the painting from the front porch.	Anonymous User	23 May 2021, 07:33 AM
922	Glad to hear our city is supporting our LGBTQ community. Thank you.	Anonymous User	23 May 2021, 08:17 AM
923	Great initiative.	Anonymous User	23 May 2021, 10:08 AM
924	The community should have been asked whether or not this was wanted in the first place	Anonymous User	23 May 2021, 08:08 PM
925	Very petty locations	Anonymous User	23 May 2021, 09:00 PM
926	The inclusion of so many options directly outside of Catholic locations is frankly disgusting and petty of this city. Thoroughly disappointed at the childishness of this decision. You should be ashamed.	Anonymous User	23 May 2021, 09:02 PM
927	great idea!	Anonymous User	23 May 2021, 09:05 PM
928	great idea. I haven't seen the first one	Anonymous User	23 May 2021, 10:19 PM
