Question options

- Head of the Lake Park - This name was chosen to reflect the name of the current land agreement in place that allows settler communities to occupy the location of the park in question, as per the Mississaugas of the Credit First Nation
- Unity Park - When forms of hatred and attempts to divide people are on the rise we need to find ways of expressing what we think is important. Unity means that we embrace our differences, that we value other people's experience and beliefs.
- Truth and Reconciliation Park - To heal as a nation we need to speak the truth and reconcile our relationship with the Indigenous peoples of Canada.
- Sweetgrass Park - Sweet grass is one of the sacred medicines to many First Nations. It is used as a purification medicine in ceremony to purify ourselves and to heal
