PURPOSE:

Vision to Focus Alignment:

- Building more citizen engagement, community health and culture
- Deliver customer centric services with a focus on efficiency and technology transformation

Background and Discussion:

Bill 68, the Modernizing Ontario's Municipal Legislation Act, 2017, which received Royal Assent on May 30, 2017, expanded the responsibilities of the Integrity Commissioners. It required that all municipal governments provide access to an Integrity Commissioner by either appointing its own Integrity Commissioner or making provisions that the services of an Integrity Commissioner be provided by another municipality. The City of Burlington's Integrity Commissioner is Principles Integrity.

The Integrity Commissioner is appointed to act in an independent manner on the application of the Code of Good Governance and other rules and procedures governing the ethical behaviour of Members of Council.

The Integrity Commissioner is responsible for providing Integrity Commissioner services on an as required basis in accordance with sections 223.3 to 223.8 of the Municipal Act, 2001, as amended. The services include, but are not limited to, the following duties and responsibilities:

- act as an advisor to Council
- provide advice on and assist with any drafting related to the code of conduct governing members of Council
- conduct investigations regarding alleged breaches of the code of good governance governing members of Council
- provide information to Council as to obligations under the code of good governance, policies and procedures, rules and legislation governing members on ethical behaviour
- provide advice to individual members regarding specific situations as they relate to the application of the code of good governance, policies and procedures, rules and legislation governing members on ethical behaviour
- provide information to the public regarding the code of good governance and the obligations of members of Council under the code of good governance, policies and procedures, rules and legislation governing their members on ethical behaviour
- provide annual reports to Council summarizing the activities of the Integrity Commissioner

The Integrity Commissioner is required to preserve secrecy in all matters that come to their knowledge in the course of their duties. At the same time, the municipality is required to ensure that reports received from the Integrity Commissioner are made available to the public.
